

WHERE ARE THEY NOW!

LES HOLMES

Where were you born?

Boulder

Where did you play your junior footy?

For Mines Rovers in the Goldfields

What was your playing number as South Bunbury? 15

Regarding football in general – who were the most influential people for you? Charlie Osmetti my first league coach and John Depiazzi at South

How did you get to South Bunbury?

Recruited from Mines Rovers

At South Bunbury who were the most influential people for you?

John Depiazzi, we still talk about him even though he has been long departed

What are some of your Football Highlights outside of your time with South?

Being part of a junior premierships at Mines after a long drought and being part of a combined Goldfields team that went close to beating Subiaco, also coaching Boyup Brook and Donnybrook to finals series

What are some of your Football Highlights at South Bunbury?

Playing in 80 and 81 premierships, coaching Souths reserves to a premierships and chairman of selectors, Football director, and President to different premierships

What is your greatest achievement at South Bunbury?

As above

The infamous 1985 SWFL Grand Final – what are your memories?

I played my last game of football in the reserves

Any funny stories you can share?

When I was playing for Boyup Brook I was surprised to find our gun full forward 50 meters in the clear in the goal square, after kicking the ball to him and he converted saw their full back coming back onto the ground, he had to go to the toilet so just went off for 5 minutes and hoped nobody would notice

Who is the best player you played with at South Bunbury & why?

Bruce Crabb who always lifted when the pressure went on and played with great courage

Who was your toughest opponent in the SWFL?

Greg Tylor from Mines Rovers Collie

How many games did you play for South Bunbury?

95

Where are you now?

Same house that we moved to from Boulder 42 years ago

What do you do now?

Own 5 Goggles Shoes stores

Do you have an interest in footy at the moment?

Follow South and Richmond, go to our club most Friday nights

Who will win the 2020 AFL Premiership?

Richmond

Do you like how football is played today?

Not particularly

Any other things you'd like to share with South Bunbury members?

We need to win another premiership; my old club Mines Rovers are only one premiership behind our record